Mil 142-27—1

Sir

I have the honour to state that for more than twenty years Volga (Native Band) was being played once a week at a cost of Rs 3 per day in the Town Hall Compound and afterwards in the Hardinge Circle to afford recreation to the public This arrangement was however discontinued from November 1925

The Managing Committee desirous of resuscitating this arrange passed the following resolution(No 4 dated 23rd July 1927) -

> "As the Palace Band plays in the Nishad Bagh there is no necessity for Volga in the Hardinge Circle Volga in the Subbarayanakere Park and Kantharaj Urs Chowk may be arranged for twice a month in the former and once in the latter"

The Municipal Council in its Resolution No 63 dated 5th September 1927 (copy enclosed) has sanctioned the above proposal of the Managing Committee I request that sanction of Government may kindly be accorded to this Resolution of the Council the charges to be incurred on this account viz Rs 9 a month at Rs 3 for each performance being met from the provision of Rs 5,000/- made under "Fairs and Festivals" (E 10 Expenditure side) in the current year's budget estimates

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

C S Kuppuswamiengar
